

Please do not allow the routine use of cell phones on airplanes. Airplane rides are already crowded and noisy enough. I've been on plane rides where certain passengers talk none stop from the minute they enter the plane until they're told to turn their phones off. Please do NOT allow people to use their cell phones on airplanes unless someone really invents the "cone of silence".